

Belgian optical cable prices

AI Overview

Nexans and Belram are key Belgian suppliers of fiber optic cables, with price lists available via direct download or upon request. Key Manufacturers and Distributors

1. Nexans Belgium Nexans produces fiber optic cables for infrastructure, building, and industrial markets. Their Price List N 08/2024 covers cables for domestic and industrial applications, with prices listed per 1000 meters. The list is available as an Excel file in French and Dutch and can be downloaded from their website. Prices are subject to updates without prior notice, so contacting Nexans directly is recommended for the most current rates (Nexans, 2024).
2. Belram Belram is a leading distributor in Belgium and Luxembourg, offering a wide range of fiber optic connectors, cables, adapters, and networking tools. While they do not publish a public price list online, they provide competitive pricing and personalized quotations for professional applications. Customers can contact their sales team for detailed pricing and lead times (Belram, 2026).
3. B2B Directories and Other Manufacturers Europages Belgium lists over 30 companies supplying fiber optic cables, including Nexans Opticable and Kabelwerk Eupen AG. These suppliers often provide custom quotes based on project requirements (Europages, 2026). Ensun provides a directory of 88 fiber optic cable manufacturers in Belgium, including Netconnect, Fiber Connect, and A-NET, which specialize in structured cabling and FTTH solutions. Pricing is typically available upon request (Ensun, 2026). Mouser Belgium offers fiber optic cables with inventory, datasheets, and pricing, suitable for smaller-scale or component-level purchases (Mouser, 2026).
