

East African Fiber Optic Connector Manufacturer

AI Overview

Several East African companies, including Lotuscope Inc., CP Cables Ltd, and CTC Kenya, supply or manufacture fiber optic fast connectors and related products. Key Manufacturers and Suppliers

1. Lotuscope Inc. (Kenya) Lotuscope Inc., established in 2001, specializes in fiber optic cable assemblies, transceivers, connectors, adapters, and patch cords. They are ISO 9001:2008 certified and known for high-quality products, competitive pricing, and fast delivery. Lotuscope provides OEM fiber optic assemblies to global partners and supports a wide range of fiber optic products, including SC/APC fast connectors, patch panels, splitters, and attenuators, making them a reliable manufacturer for East African network deployments .
2. CP Cables Ltd (Kenya) CP Cables Ltd offers a comprehensive range of fiber optic products, including cables, connectors, adapters, splitters, transceivers, and ONTs. They source products from trusted manufacturers adhering to high-quality standards, ensuring durability and reliable performance for outdoor and long-distance networks. CP Cables focuses on providing efficient, cost-effective solutions for high-speed data transmission across East Africa .
3. CTC Kenya CTC Kenya supplies fiber optic fast connectors (SC/APC) designed for easy and rapid installation without special tools or electrical power, making them ideal for maintenance or emergency restoration of fiber networks. Their products are suitable for both enterprise and service provider applications, emphasizing speed and simplicity in deployment .

Additional Services Companies like Spectrum Engineering Africa provide end-to-end fiber solutions, including planning, trenching, installation, splicing, testing, and SLA-backed support. While they focus on network deployment rather than manufacturing, they often integrate fast connectors and other fiber components into their projects, ensuring reliable and scalable fiber...
