

Guyana Company

AI Overview

Guyana hosts a mix of local and international companies across sectors like oil and gas, agriculture, finance, telecommunications, and services. Key Sectors and Companies

Oil and Gas: Guyana's economy has rapidly expanded due to offshore oil discoveries, attracting global energy giants such as ExxonMobil Guyana, TotalEnergies, Chevron, and CNOOC, which operate major projects in the Stabroek Block, generating significant revenue for the country.

Agriculture and Food & Beverage: Traditional sectors remain vital. Notable companies include Demerara Distillers Limited (DDL), a leading rum and beverage producer, Banks DIH Limited, and Guyana Sugar Corporation (GuySuCo), central to sugar and rice production.

Finance and Banking: Major financial institutions include Republic Bank Guyana Limited and Guyana Bank for Trade and Industry (GBTI), providing banking and investment services across the country.

Telecommunications and Technology: Guyana Telephone and Telegraph Company (GT&T) is a cornerstone of telecommunications, while firms like AAGENS INC. provide business, technology, and investment solutions.

Construction and Real Estate: Companies such as BackHome Developments Co. focus on property development and real estate services in Georgetown and surrounding areas.

Tourism and Services: Local enterprises like 592 Tours and hospitality providers such as Aiden by Best Western Georgetown cater to tourism and accommodation needs.
