

Xiaomi Router 200M Fiber Optic Cable

AI Overview

The Xiaomi 4 1200M 5G Dual-Band Router supports 200M fiber optic connections and comes with a gigabit network cable for setup. Product Overview The Xiaomi 4 1200M 5G Dual-Band Wireless Router is designed for high-speed internet connections, including fiber optic networks up to 200 Mbps. It features dual-band Wi-Fi (2.4 GHz and 5 GHz) for stable and fast wireless connectivity, making it suitable for streaming, gaming, and multiple device usage. The router package typically includes a gigabit Ethernet cable to connect the router to your Optical Network Terminal (ONT) or modem.

Fiber Optic Connection Setup To connect a fiber optic cable to the Xiaomi router, follow these steps:

- Install the Optical Network Terminal (ONT): Your ISP usually provides an ONT. Connect the fiber optic cable from the wall outlet to the ONT's designated port and power it on.
- Connect the ONT to the Router: Use the included Ethernet cable to link the ONT's LAN port to the router's WAN port.
- Power on the Router: Wait for the indicator lights to confirm a successful connection.
- Configure Wi-Fi: Access the router's web interface or mobile app to set up your Wi-Fi network, including SSID and password. The router supports standard fiber optic connectors such as SC/APC or SC/UPC, depending on your ISP's setup.

Additional Features

- High-speed performance: Up to 1200 Mbps combined across both bands.
- Gigabit Ethernet ports: For wired connections to PCs, smart TVs, or gaming consoles.
- Durable and reliable: Designed for long-term use with imported quality components.
- Customer support: Online assistance is available for setup or troubleshooting.

Purchasing Options The Xiaomi 4 1200M router with 200M fiber optic support is available on platforms like Shopee and Xiaomi official stores, with free shipping vouchers and warranty support. Ensure you select the correct model compatible with your ISP's fiber service. By following these steps and using the included accessories, you can efficiently set up a fiber optic internet connection with the Xiaomi router for fast an...
